David Kauffman in Concert

Sunday, December 3, 2017

St. Joseph Church, Manchester - 7:30pm - $20

Singer/songwriter David Kauffman's music ministry was born in San Antonio while he performed at Sunday night youth services. After his song “Come and See” was chosen as the 1989 theme song for the National Catholic Youth Conference, Kauffman expanded his musical horizons to include performances at youth rallies, colleges, and churches across the United States. His debut album, Simple Truth, was released in 1999, followed by Be Still in 2002 and Behold in 2003. In 2010, Mass of Renewal, co-composed by Kauffman and William Gokelman, was voted as the winner of that year’s New Mass Competition sponsored by the National Association of Pastoral Musicians. David is a graduate of Chaminade High School in St. Louis and played an important role in the area’s initial ACTS retreats.

David’s concert is being held in conjunction with the Dec. 1, 2, 3, 2017 Advent Retreat at the Marianist Retreat Center. People who register for the retreat receive one ticket to the concert. The theme of the retreat, “Be Still” is based on one David’s songs and he will make an appearance at the retreat.

The proceeds from this concert will help support the Marianist Retreat Center Ministry and St. Joseph’s Parish.

Tickets can be bought online at www.mretreat.org, at the St. Joseph Parish Office or at:
